

James W. Bayne Award

Lennox Armstrong, class of 1915, and a founder of Pi Tau Sigma, the mechanical engineering honor society, has funded an award in the name of late professor, James W. Bayne, former national president of Pi Tau Sigma. The award is presented to an outstanding senior in Pi Tau Sigma based on scholarship, activities and service. The recipient, whose name is placed on a plaque in the Mechanical Engineering building, receives a monetary award and a certificate. (The faculty advisor makes nominations to the Awards Committee, which selects the recipient.)
